

Crescent Engineering & Consulting

Jr. Design Engineer

Location – Navi Mumbai, Maharashtra

Responsibilities and Duties

- Develop customized systems based on client requirements
- Documentation and tracking of design and development process
- Interacting with client and understanding their detailed requirements
- Travel to client locations (if required)
- Establishing timelines and development goals
- Implementing solutions on customer end
- Ownership of assigned process and client
- Guide customers towards best practice and optimal solutions

Qualifications

- Minimum qualification – Undergraduate degree in Mechanical Engineering or equivalent
- Experience – Freshers of 2022 and 2023 graduating batch
- Mandatory skills – Any 3D CAD, any 2D CAD, ability to think critically & analytically
- Personal characteristics
 - Excellent communication skills
 - Capable of working alone and with teams
 - Should be willing to learn and grow in line with company requirements

About the company

CRESCENT ENGINEERING & CONSULTING is considered as pioneer in field of Design Automation. The company has globally certified Design Analysis and Product Simulation Engineers. Providing a complete end-to-end engineering & design development environment, we provide a one stop shop for our customer's engineering requirements. The company has a wide clientele, serving clients of various industry verticals.

Application Process

Interested students need to apply to hr@crescentengg.co.in with a proper email body referring to the position applying for and the engineering collage from which they are graduating.